Whitebeam gift boxes – the simple yet stylish gift option for brides-to-be Whitebeam boutique gift boxes are an easy and stylish present choice for brides-to-be. Giftable products from British companies have been selected by Founder and Creative Director Lisa Whalley-Smith for their quality, packaging, fragrance and design. They are then elegantly placed into stylish boxes, resulting in a stunning thank you gift that can be matched to the colour or theme of the wedding with bespoke options also available.

The range of beautiful gift boxes is perfect for the key members of the wedding party. Priced at £100, 'Pink Floral' is a beautiful feminine gift box containing soft dusty pink products with a soft rose fragrance and is just perfect for bridesmaids. 'Men's Blue' (£115-£170) makes a perfect gift for the groom and includes handmade 925 sterling silver cufflinks. 'Fresh White' (£85-£125) makes a perfect gift from the groom to give to the bride on the morning of their wedding. There are also boxes suitable for the groomsmen and the Mother and Father-of-the bride.

'Pink Floral' contains a soft dusty pink scarf with rose gold foil detail, 'the rose garden' natural shea and coconut soap and 'the rose garden' sugar scrub from Bloomtown Botanicals in Cornwall, a rose geranium fragranced natural soy wax candle from Parkminster in West Sussex, an 'Aphrodite' facial oil with rosehip from Moa in London and a handy sized tin of Shea Butter from Siabann in Scotland. Price: £100 plus p&p

Having worked in product marketing for 16 years, Lisa has recently set up Whitebeam Gifts Ltd which is named after the leaning whitebeam tree in her garden. By choosing to source products from British companies, Whitebeam Gifts Ltd helps promote and support small cottage industries, family businesses and passionate British entrepreneurs.

Lisa said, "My gift boxes allow the recipient to discover boutique and artisan brands from British companies. Each gift box purchase not only supports my business but also supports dedicated and passionate British producers."
