The elite of the cleaning and FM industry were recognised at the 2024 Kimberly-Clark Professional™ Golden Service Awards.

Awards were presented to winners across 18 categories at a formal ceremony on 23rd May at the London Hilton, Park Lane by Craig Bowman, General Manager, UK & Ireland, Kimberly-Clark Professional and comedian, actor and writer Hugh Dennis.

For the past 18 years, Suzanne Howe Communications has organised the Golden Service Awards for Kimberly-Clark Professional™. Created over 30 years ago, the biennial awards scheme is today one of the most prestigious events and sought-after accolades in the FM and cleaning industry.

The event provides the opportunity for FM companies, contract cleaners and in-house cleaning teams to showcase excellence and set the benchmark for exceptional standards. Today, this industry provides front-line essential workers across business sectors, all of which are recognised and celebrated at the Golden Service Awards.

SHC helped floorcare experts Truvox International launch the newly extended Multiwash™ PRO range, with the addition of Steam and Battery.

SHC gained coverage about how pioneering start-up Biovate Hygienics has pledged to become the country's 'go to' brand for sustainable and carbon neutral cleaning products, while announcing a trio of new hires to help propel it into its next stage of growth.

Towards the end of 2023, as part of a major new earlier diagnosis drive, NHS England chose to partner with P-Wave to create an awareness campaign to encourage men to consult their GPs if they saw blood in their urine. SHC gained major coverage in the FM and cleaning trade media.

At the end of March 2025, Cleanology announced its rebranding in a bold and exciting live launch marked by the projection of its vibrant new logo against iconic London landmarks.

SHC announced the appointment of former intern Craig Bowman (right) as Kimberly-Clark Professional™ General Manager, UK & Ireland.

SHC raised awareness of Sybron's biodegradable nitrile single-use gloves, designed to help the industry become more sustainable.

In May 2024, Bunzl UK & Ireland and social enterprise Amplify Goods joined forces for the groundbreaking launch of a new range of luxury washroom products.

Suzanne Howe Communications created a B2B PR campaign to raise awareness across the FM and Cleaning sectors with a targeted public relations campaign – and carried out the work pro bono to support Amplify as a social enterprise.

Suzanne Howe says: “Camilla is a good friend of SHC. We have been happy to support them in the past when they were working at Clarity and we are happy to support them now at Amplify. It is important to us to give back to the cleaning industry which we have worked in for the last 14 years.”

RE:MIND has been designed to combine luxury hand and body care and social value, using a unique, high-quality formulation that uses carefully selected ingredients that are 96-99% naturally-derived depending on the product.

As a certified Social Enterprise, Amplify Goods donates at least 51% of its profits to charitable projects at the intersection of mental health and the environment, among many other initiatives that drive positive change in local communities.

Amplify Goods is an established social enterprise with a track record in selling net-positive washroom products to businesses looking to bring Net Zero ambitions into action within their supply chains as well as work opportunities to disabled, ex-homeless and underemployed groups.

Camilla Marcus-Dew, Amplify Goods’ co-founder, said: “Amplify Goods is proud to do things differently. The products have to be great, but we also work hard to design in a way that reduces waste, single-use plastic, and harsh ingredients whilst enabling bottle reuse, and putting more than half our profits into supporting the intersection between mental health and the natural.”

“Amplify Goods are the perfect partner for this collaboration; we love their ethos and commitment to purpose and we’re looking forward to the years ahead as we scale this ESG industry leading premium range,” said Amy McLauchlan, Bunzl UK & Ireland Exclusive Brands Brand Manager.

For many years, Suzanne Howe Communications has helped leading London-based commercial and office cleaning company Cleanology to tell its wide-ranging and ever-evolving sustainability story.

Key goals and achievements that SHC has communicated to the media have been:

2016 saw Cleanology's entry into the market with Europe's first biotech wipe for tablets and mobile phones, and pre-portioned cleaning fluids and floor cleaner in sachets.

In 2017, Cleanology was shortlisted in the Workforce category of the European Cleaning and Hygiene awards, recognising excellence in employee relationships, training and diversity.

2018 saw Cleanology winning the Environmental Awareness category in the biennial Kimberly-Clark Professional Golden Service Awards.

In 2019, Cleanology revealed research into real attitudes to rates of pay, with almost two-thirds of employees concerned that cleaners should be paid fairly.

In 2020, Cleanology became the first to kit staff out in uniforms made from 7,000 plastic bottles.

Later that year, Cleanology teamed up with The Hygiene Bank for the UK's first National Hygiene Week – to raise awareness about hygiene poverty and distribute personal hygiene and cleaning products to those in need.

2021 was when Cleanology went electric, when following a deal signed with Nissan, it took delivery of its brand new all-electric London fleet. Later in 2021, Cleanology's long term commitment to fair pay in the cleaning industry resulted in a win at the Living Wage Champion Awards.

In 2022, Cleanology joined the Living Wage Foundation's Recognised Service Provider (RSP) Leadership Group.

In 2023 Cleanology announced it had taken on 600 new staff in the last year during a period of record-breaking growth and the launch of a national expansion.

In January 2024, we announced that Cleanology had strengthened its senior leadership team as it positions itself for a new era of growth.

In October 2024, a sell-out event at London's Hard Rock Café saw Cleanology raise a record-breaking £32,000 in cash and a further £5,000 in product donations to help The Hygiene Bank charity play a major role alleviating hygiene poverty. The annual charity fundraiser has so far raised £115k.
