The changing (and challenging) Facilities Management and cleaning industry landscape

The UK cleaning and facilities management (FM) industries are undergoing a period of significant change. Rising labour costs, expanding regulatory requirements, sustainability expectations, digitalisation and evolving workplace models are reshaping how services are delivered and how organisations compete.

While demand for cleaning and FM services remains resilient, providers are operating in an increasingly complex environment where margins are under pressure and compliance obligations continue to grow.

Client expectations are also rising. Organisations must balance cost-control with the need to meet stricter regulatory, environmental and reporting standards, while delivering flexible, high-quality services that demonstrate clear value.

As a result, cleaning and FM are no longer viewed solely as operational support functions. They are increasingly recognised as strategic services that underpin safety, sustainability, wellbeing and organisational performance across the UK economy.

Sustainability and environmental responsibility

Sustainability has moved from a “nice to have” to a core expectation. Clients increasingly expect cleaning and FM providers to demonstrate:

- Use of environmentally friendly products and chemicals
- Reduced water, energy and plastic consumption
- Improved waste segregation and recycling practices
- Support for clients’ ESG and net-zero objectives

Sustainability is becoming a commercial differentiator, with suppliers increasingly required to provide data and evidence of environmental performance during tenders and contract reviews.

At the Cleaning Excellence Conference 2025, Suzanne Howe presented a session entitled: “Focus on ESG – and how PR can support Social Enterprises in the Cleaning Industry.” Suzanne talked to Sam Worden, COO of NGB CLEAN, and Camilla Marcus-Dew, co-founder and Director of Amplify Goods, about their social enterprises, and how they have been supported with PR.

SHC recently shared how Kimberly-Clark Professional has evolved RightCycle™ into ReNew by Kimberly-Clark Professional™: Sustainable solutions made simple.

2Pure Products recently announced that all of its products are now certified Carbon Neutral – including the use-phase.

In August 2025, social enterprise Amplify Goods has launched SUDZERØ™ for Net Zero and with over 84% less carbon than standard hand wash products.

Carbon neutral to Net Zero

Many manufacturers are conducting Life Cycle Assessments to achieve carbon-neutrality – quantifying emissions from raw materials to end-of-life.

LCAs reveals hotspots, prevents greenwashing, guides reduction strategies, supports credible offsets, meets regulations, and builds customer trust through transparent, data-driven climate claims for global sustainability leadership efforts.

There is also a move to achieving Net Zero – balancing the amount of greenhouse gases released into the atmosphere with an equivalent amount removed.

In January 2026, commercial cleaning product manufacturer and distributor Robert Scott added two new AI-powered robots to its steadily expanding cobotics range.

In early 2025, Kimberly-Clark announced the expansion of its decarbonisation efforts through new multi-country European power purchase agreements with BNZ.

In March 2025, commercial cleaning social enterprise NGB (No Going Back) CLEAN – which helps prison leavers rebuild their lives – launched a green initiative to drive recycling of bicycle inner tubes and tyres.

As part of a major new earlier diagnosis drive, NHS England chose to partner with Robert Scott brand P-Wave to create an awareness campaign to encourage men to consult their GPs if they saw blood in their urine. SHC gained major coverage in the FM and cleaning trade media. Over 1 million of these potentially life-saving mats have now been placed in men's washrooms across the country, from pubs and restaurants, to stadiums.

SHC raised awareness of Sybron's biodegradable nitrile single-use gloves, designed to help the industry become more sustainable.

In March 2025, Kimberly-Clark announced first tissue manufacturing site on path to 100% Renewable Energy.

From awards schemes, through product launches, to events and business development stories, SHC delivers wide-ranging and measurably effective PR campaigns for clients in the cleaning and facilities management sectors.

The elite of the cleaning and FM industry were recognised at the 2024 Kimberly-Clark Professional™ Golden Service Awards.

Awards were presented to winners across 18 categories at a formal ceremony on 23rd May at the London Hilton, Park Lane by Craig Bowman, General Manager, UK & Ireland, Kimberly-Clark Professional and comedian, actor and writer Hugh Dennis.

For the past 18 years, Suzanne Howe Communications has organised the Golden Service Awards for Kimberly-Clark Professional™. Created over 30 years ago, the biennial awards scheme is today one of the most prestigious events and sought-after accolades in the FM and cleaning industry.

The event provides the opportunity for FM companies, contract cleaners and in-house cleaning teams to showcase excellence and set the benchmark for exceptional standards. Today, this industry provides front-line essential workers across business sectors, all of which are recognised and celebrated at the Golden Service Awards.

In March 2025, SHC secured significant national and local coverage for Sybron, a leading UK supplier of cleaning, hygiene and catering products to some of the largest names in hospitality, when it announced the successful completion of a management buyout.

Amplify Goods announced that in 12 months it had created more than 1,000 hours of living-wage paid work experience, and generated an estimated £1,000,000 in social value.

In August 2025, Chemanglia Limited was awarded the Royal Warrant by His Majesty King Charles III.

In February 2025, ahead of InterClean at the RAI Amsterdam, Truvox International announced the launch of several new product ranges.

P-Wave's body awareness partnership with NHS England won the Marketing Campaign of the Year category at the 24th European Office Product Awards in Amsterdam in March 2025.

In May 2024, Bunzl UK & Ireland and social enterprise Amplify Goods joined forces for the groundbreaking launch of a new range of luxury washroom products.

Suzanne Howe Communications created a B2B PR campaign to raise awareness across the FM and Cleaning sectors with a targeted public relations campaign – and carried out the work pro bono to support Amplify as a social enterprise.

Suzanne Howe says: “Camilla is a good friend of SHC. We have been happy to support them in the past when they were working at Clarity and we are happy to support them now at Amplify. It is important to us to give back to the cleaning industry which we have worked in for the last 14 years.”

RE:MIND has been designed to combine luxury hand and body care and social value, using a unique, high-quality formulation that uses carefully selected ingredients that are 96-99% naturally-derived depending on the product.

As a certified Social Enterprise, Amplify Goods donates at least 51% of its profits to charitable projects at the intersection of mental health and the environment, among many other initiatives that drive positive change in local communities.

Amplify Goods is an established social enterprise with a track record in selling net-positive washroom products to businesses looking to bring Net Zero ambitions into action within their supply chains as well as work opportunities to disabled, ex-homeless and underemployed groups.

Camilla Marcus-Dew, Amplify Goods’ co-founder, said: “Amplify Goods is proud to do things differently. The products have to be great, but we also work hard to design in a way that reduces waste, single-use plastic, and harsh ingredients whilst enabling bottle reuse, and putting more than half our profits into supporting the intersection between mental health and the natural.”

“Amplify Goods are the perfect partner for this collaboration; we love their ethos and commitment to purpose and we’re looking forward to the years ahead as we scale this ESG industry leading premium range,” said Amy McLauchlan, Bunzl UK & Ireland Exclusive Brands Brand Manager.

In February 2026, as the first of SHC's 30th birthday celebrations, we invited ten industry friends, clients and colleagues to our first ever stakeholder engagement lunch for the cleaning sector at a restaurant in London.

Our guests included: Ross Osbourne, MSC; Michelle Marhsall, European Cleaning Journal; Rachael Carley, Carley Coaching; Sam Worden, NGB Clean; Kate Lovell, Cleanology; Hannah Taylor, The Lens Box; Neil Spencer Cook, BICSc; Amy Carter, Kimberly-Clark Professional; and Deborah Sparkes, SHC.

The issues that were discussed were serious, but the event was relaxed and informal – with great food – and everyone that was involved loved it and found it really useful.

SHC is in the process of applying for B-Corp certification. B-Corp is an independent set of standards of social and environmental performance, accountability, and transparency. Companies who have a B-Corp certification, aim to balance profit with purpose that benefits people, communities and the planet. So, while the discussions at the stakeholder lunch focused on the trends, challenges and opportunities facing the cleaning industry, we also looked at B-Corp and its values, and how they are reflected in the cleaning sector.

Rachael Carley, SHC's B-Corp consultant chaired the meeting, which covered questions on sharing perspectives, identifying opportunities for collaboration and gathering insight to share via a press release and social media, especially LinkedIn.
